

Press credentials to cover FOCIS 2006 will be granted to two individuals from any one media organization or publication group. Those desiring to send additional representatives must contact the FOCIS Meetings Department either before the meeting or at the registration desk.

CREDENTIALS

- Only representatives of the following media will be registered:
 - General circulation newspapers, magazines, or wire services
 - Medical or health care publications
 - Broadcast media
 - Web site writers
- Representatives from the above must represent the editorial staff. Advertising or marketing representatives will not be registered as press.
- Freelancer writers must produce a letter of assignment from a medium such as those listed above. Freelancer writers who wish to attend the meeting without a specific editorial assignment must present credentials indicating membership in a recognized professional communications association, or submit published samples of their work along with appropriate identification. Freelancer writers who wish further interpretation of this policy are encouraged to contact Gail Bast, FOCIS Executive Director, at (414) 918-3192, or gbast@focisnet.org.
- Representatives of public relations/communication and pharmaceutical organizations are not allowed in the press room and do not have access to press room materials. Any individual with a press badge who sells, markets or represents a company for the purpose of obtaining advertising or subscriptions from any registrant or exhibitor will immediately forfeit press credentials for this and subsequent meetings.

GENERAL CONDITIONS

- Press representatives may cover all scientific sessions, workshops, forums and exhibits of FOCIS 2006, with the exception of sessions and meetings that are designated as restricted, closed or by invitation only in the final program.
- All camera crews must be escorted by FOCIS staff.
